

Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors

Sustainable Procurement

The Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors

What is Sustainable Procurement

- Its aim - to secure the Future by:
 - Attention to Life Cycle Costing
 - Quality of the Specified Product
 - Human Rights of the Workforce
 - Use of Recyclable Material
 - Reduction of Waste

The Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors

Benefits of Sustainable Procurement

- Control Costs through Whole Life Costing.
- Improve Standards by Performance Assessments.
- Compliance with Environmental and Social Legislation.
- Management of Risk and Reputation.
- Build a Sustainable Supply Chain for the future.
- Involve the Local Business Community.

The Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors

Removing Barriers

- Move Away from Lowest Price
- Leadership & Commitment
- Improve the Supply Chain
- Building Capacity
- Exceed "Best Practice"

The Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors

Drivers for Sustainable Procurement

- Commitment
- Education of Clients and Suppliers
- Supply Chain Management
- Supply Chain Enhancement

The Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors

The Way Forward

- People
- Policy
- Strategy and Communications
- Procurement Process
- Engaging Suppliers and Measurement and Results

The Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors